God Lives Underwater, Lonely Again

Deep. Deep. Slowly. I'm slowing down not to be found for a while I keep thinking the past few days Sometimes I'm wrong worng in my ways I tell myself someday I've got to explain. Now i've become What I said Said I'd never come to You just figured that I Would never care About anything. Sleep. Sleep. Lonely again Toss in my bed Regret what i said to you I can't stop thinking of how you cried You're probably drinking tomorrow you'll lie I know myself It's something I can't control
