

God Lives Underwater, Lost

Why did the worst times happen with you?
I did everything I could do, I did what I could and I would.
I would die for you.
You've gone and you've found somebody else.
You've gone and left me lost.
Will I ever see you again?
Why did we lose somehow the feeling?
I never felt so sad, I could have changed things when I knew.
I wouldn't get you back.
You've gone and you've found somebody else.
You've gone and left me lost.
Will I ever see you again?
You've gone and you've found somebody else.
You've gone and left me lost.
Will I ever see you again?
Will you ever love me again?
And when I put your hand in my hand.
Will I ever be with you again?
