

God's Bow, Hopeful Minds

The warmth of sun and smell of wind
The time and space you want to feel
Please feel the magic of life...

You discover divinity of my mind
I realize the power of pure blessing
You discover divinity of my heart
I exist with consciousness of perfect reality

You discover divinity of your nature
Realize power of pure blessing
Discover divinity of your mind
And exist with consciousness of perfect days

The warmth of sun, the dimming stars
The smell of wind, the empty space
The dimming stars, the smell of wind
The empty space you'll find it some day

The universe and dimming stars
The empty space and hopeful sky
I hope it will be mine...

I realize power of pray with pure intention
I trust wisdom and goodness
I realize power of gratitude and rewarding
I discover divinity of my nature

You discover divinity of your nature
Realize power of pure blessing
Discover divinity of your mind
And exist with consciousness of perfect days

The warmth of sun, the dimming stars
The smell of wind, the empty space
The dimming stars, the smell of wind
The empty space you will find it some day...
