

Godgory, Leavetaking

I thought you were sleeping in your bed
You looked so peaceful and serene
But you had left this stinking earth
Your soul flies free among the stars

Oh my friend I miss you so
and tears will fill this hole inside

By my friend I'll never see you again
We buried you in my mothers garden
Now you rest eternally

I know that death comes to us all
And now you're gone forevermore
Can't end this grief can't end this pain
The wheel of time is rolling still

and tears will fill this hole inside

By my friend I'll never see you again
We buried you by my favourite tree
Now you rest eternally
