

Godhead, Break

I'm trapped inside
The world you sell
A product in your
Plastic, perfect Hell
Compressed beside your head
Just wishing I was dead

Break my mind
Break my will
Break my soul

I crumble as I
Watch you take control
Sell me on all
The points you make
Take from me all
The bones you break
Forever in your pain

Break my mind
Break my will
Break my soul

I crumble as I watch
You take control
Give me the life
I can't endure
Your world is Anything but pure
Forever my torture

Break my mind
Break my will
Break my soul
My will to live has Fallen down your hole

Break my mind
Break my will
Break my soul
I crumble as I
Watch you take control
