

Godhead, Gimp

Wishing on planes that I thought were just stars
I stretched my hopes from near to far
I crashed my plane into mountains of sand
This boy will never be a man

Take, Me
I want to forget my name
Break, Me
Let me be the one to serve you

I'll tell the man that lives inside my head
I want to be like you instead
Keeping the promise that I made before
Just one more hit, I'll be your whore
I'll be your whore

Take, Me
I want to forget my name
Break, Me
Let me be the one to serve you
Take, Me
I want to forget my name
Break, Me
Let me be the one to serve you
Take, Me
I want to forget my name
Break, Me
Let me be the one to serve you
