

Godhead, Paper Needle

Can you feel me now?
There is no way out
Can you tell what's on my mind?
I control you now
You can feel my power

Lick my wounds
They'll set you free
I will take you now

Where your mind will sour
You can rest your head
Take my peace instead
There's no pain in here
There's no death to fear

Lick my wounds
They'll bring you here
I will take you now

Where your mind will sour
You can eat your head
Take my pain instead

Come inside, take the ride,
Losing time All is well,
In my hell, take your life
Watch my hand, destroy man,
And your world Come with me,
You will see, the end is yours
