

Godhead, Trapped In Your Lies

You, you can try to keep me down, hold me under, watch me drown, given half a chance to breath,
I know I can break this tragedy

(Chorus)

Nothing you can say, nothing you can do, gotta get away, get away from you, as I look to the sky,
I'm trapped in your lies, you pushed me too far this time,
I've opened up my eyes, I see your demise through your disguise this time,
I'm breaking down your lies

Now, now you try to set me free, let your guilt wash over me, given half a chance to see,
I know this is just concessionary

Nothing you can say, nothing you can do, gotta get away, get away from you,
as I look to the sky,
I'm trapped in your lies, you pushed me too far this time,
I've opened up my eyes, I see your demise through your disguise this time,
I'm breaking down your lies

I'm trapped in your lies, you pushed me too far this time,
I've opened up my eyes, I see your demise through your disguise this time,
I'm breaking down your lies

I'm trapped in your lies, you pushed me too far this time,
I've opened up my eyes, I see your demise through your disguise this time,
I'm breaking down your lies
