

Godhead, Without

Under here
There's no light
Take from me my sight
I don't need it anymore
You came here
With your fire
Burned out my desire
Took the whisper from the flame
I never wanted
I never knew
It was you
I stood there helpless
Far and away
Nothing left to say
And it feels the same that it did before
Only without you
And I cry the same that I did before
Only without you
I failed to see the light that was for me
I choked my resurrection
