

Godhead, Your End Of Days

Crawling naked in the dark
I'm hoping that I'll hit the mark within your mind
Reaching blindly out for you
I'm trying to tell you what to do to save yourself

All I want to do
Is show you how to change your ways
Or you'll suffer too
Til you reach your end of days

This self destructive path you're on
Will make you never see the dawn of your demise

Cycling through this wheel of life
Perpetuates eternal strife within your soul

All I want to do
Is show you how to change your ways
Or you'll suffer too
Til you reach your end of days
