

Gods Tower, Canticles

... And the world was young. And it was cruel and beautiful. And it was full of heroes and titans who
In that time people souls were naive and child-like happily. People saw life in everything and the sun
When the Gods descended on the Earth and saw that savage chaos they were puzzled and horrified
But Evil retired to darkness awaiting for the reveal and began to send grief and pain; suffering ensued
So, the Gods become reconciled, for continuation of the struggle had no sense and has a sign of the end
But among the Gods there was one the smallest and contemptible one, longing for power. So, he created
And the TOWER, standing on the crossing of Darkness and Light, Life and Death gradually was overgrown
And nobody from the living now knows the truth and true ancient Gods are sleeping in the TOWER
And I had this vision and having learnt the truth, I praised the sleeping and cursed the staying awake
