

Godsmack, Running Blind

Can't find the answers
I've been crawling on my knees
Looking for anything
To keep me from drowning
Promises have been turned to lies Can't even be honest inside
Now I'm running backwards watching my life wave me goodbye
im Running blind
running blind
Somebody help me see I'm running blind

Searching for nothing
Wondering if I'll change
I'm trying everything
But everything still stays the same
I thought if I showed you I could fly
Wouldn't need anyone by my side
Now I'm running backwards
With broken wings I know I'll die

im Running blind
running blind
Somebody help me see I'm running blind
Running blind
Running blind
Running blind
