

Gogol Bordello, Invisible Zedd

Little lady, alone in her house
She is preparing for a bed
Little does she know, she's in the house with invisible zed

Little lady, in her kitchen
She's bending over, over frying pan
Little does she know, while she's bending over
She's strip teasing for invisible man

Little lady, alone in her bedroom
She's watching program on Klu Klux Klan
Little does she know, while she is yawning
She's orally pleasing the invisible man

Little lady, in her
She's nearly ... in her world
Little does she know, inside of her there is invisible sperm

Lady, lady alone in her head
She's tied down to let us see
Little does she know, she's giving up birth to new invisible zed
Little does she know.
