

Golden Earring, Burning Stuntman

From the Albums:

* Naked II

* Last blast of the century

Specialize in danger I'm from Niagara Falls
And now I sit here waitin'
Like an idiot for your call
Words cannot explain
That rattlesnake in my bones
Guess it's time to face the truth
I stand here licked by love
And in the name of love
I wanna go go go, like a burning stuntman (4x)
I fry exposed to fire of course
Choke up while I'm breathin' smoke
Come on quench the fire inside my soul
I wanna go go go
A slumbering volcano
About to explode
Puttin' on a smile and then you're takin' of your clothes
Words cannot explain
My heart's red pepper blue
And my blood goes boilin' every time I think of you
I'm in danger how bout you
I wanna go go go, like a burning stuntman (4x)
You fry exposed to fire of course
Like a flame whisperin' to a moth
Come on quench the fire inside my heart
I wanna go go go
