

Golden Earring, Deja Voodoo

From the Album:

* Paradise in distress

In broad daylight
Your clean cut town
Has turned into a hunting ground
And Mama don't need no crystal ball
To see the weight
That's coming down
25 hours a day
25 hours a day
In the heart of night
It howls for more

The beast that prowls
The killing floor
And Mama don't need to read the cards
To tell you times are gettin' hard
25 hours a day
25 hours a day
You've seen it before
It's been done to you
In another life, it spell taboo
Mama calls it
Mama calls it: D
