

Golden Earring, Fluid Conduction

From the Album:

* Paradise in distress

I been sleepin' all day
Slummin' all night
In a 44 hour sedation
Since the day you cut me outta your life
The night I killed your patience
Always try to lie to you
The truth is that I love you
Need you more than anything
Without you I discover
I'm a maniac and a menace
Headin' for distruction
Your lips I miss, your tears, your kiss
Your piss, your blood
The way you function
Maybe I should thank some God
For your amazing fluid condution
It was Max, the king of facts
He made me steal for your number
Promised not to tell on him
But you know me, I'm a sucker
