Golden Earring, Fluid Conduction

From the Album:
* Paradise in distress

I been sleepin' all day Slummin' all night In a 44 hour sedation Since the day you cut me outta your life The night I killed your patience Always try to lie to you The truth is that I love you Need you more than anything Without you I discover I'm a maniac and a menace Headin' for distruction Your lips I miss, your tears, your kiss Your piss, your blood The way you function Maybe I should thank some God For your amazing fluid condution It was Max, the king of facts He made me steal for your number Promised not to tell on him But you know me, I'm a sucker
