

Golden Earring, Last Blast Of The Century

From the Album:

* Last blast of the century

It's the last blast

It's the last blast of the century

The last blast

It's the last blast of the century

This is the last time

Get to hold you in my arms

This is the last time

You get to kiss this lips of mine

Refrein 1:

This is the beginning

And not the end

We're sailing together over the edge

Holding eachother's hands

This is real life

Riding the misty train

The pleasure and the pain

This is truth no make believe

Love is a friend and hate the enemy

Refrein 2:

Last blast

It's the last blast of the century

The last blast

The last blast of the century

The last blast

It's the last blast of the century

It's the last blast

It's the last blast of the century

This is the last time

Get to kiss your lipps again

This is the last time

Get to hold you in my arms
