

Goldfinger, Answers

i searched for a cause i climbed the highest mountain i walked to the top i stopped and then looked down but when i stop the search the answers always come and when i help someone i always help myself by helping

---chorus---

you tell me where your skeleton's hiding tell me all and i'll tell you you think you have a real good fucking answer a fucking answer i'll give you i look towards the girls and there i found no truth i looked outside myself it seemed i lost the good but when i turn my eyes out from my own head that's when i realise that i see what i'm really selling
