

Gomez, Champagne For Monkeys

Lying on the roof in my dirty overcoat
Drunker than the landlords wife
Spill the shoot shebang and theyll be gold and crusty brown
Another guard upon a ride, well

Let me know when its time to go
Let me know when its time to go

So he says he wants his girl in the family mode
Fuck me this monkeys gonna multiply
Lets care the drab maybe baby well be known
First night in bed with his virgin bride, well

Let me know when its time to go
Let me know when its time to go

So you think you know you think you know you know
Well with them dawned well wake with pride
Though at all like me and worth its weight in gold
Its over now please let me lie

Well
