

Good Charlotte, The Fall

(Featuring Weezer)

It's so cold outside
Just the lonely leave their homes
A gust of wind came by
And filtered my mind
Don't have to turn the heat on
Thoughts of you keep me warm
Pictures of you by the fireplace
In the fireplace 'cause your so cold
This fall
I fall for you
Now I'm falling apart

(CHORUS)

I fell for you
I fell for you
I fell for you
And now I'm falling apart
I'm falling apart
I'm falling apart
I'm falling apart

This place reflects my life and all around
Leaves fall like hearts to the ground
Fragile and gentle just like you
Or maybe that was me
But just like the leaves
Smiles change but I never do
And when that smile leaves
The fall begins as I do too
This fall
I fall for you
And now I'm falling apart

(Chorus)

I fell for you
I fell for you
I fell for you
Now I'm falling apart
I'm falling apart
I'm falling apart
I'm falling apart

This fall we had to part
But I couldn't leave
So if you think of us next fall
Just send away for me
Wait for me when you're gone
Come next fall I still be holding on
If you come around
What should I do
Why even stay here
When all I have is you
I want you to go
But I need you to stay
One other year is just too far away
I want you to go
I want you to know
I want you to hold

(mumbling)
