

Good Charlotte, You're Gone

You were young, you were bright, you were beautiful
You were everything anyone could want from a child
You were not suppose to leave this world that way
You were not suppose to leave this world that day
You would scribble down the lyrics of your favorite song
On your notebook in school when your days were long
And it meant so much for me to know
That you meant so much you'll never know

You're gone
And we all miss you
Listen to these songs
You're alive in every one
Are you smiling down?
Are you still singing?
Were you with us all along?
Do you like what we've become?

Did I meet you in the crowd at one of our shows?
Did I see you in the faces that all come and go?
Did I ever take the time, to just say thanks?

Was I too caught up in my life, to ask you your name?
The truth about this life is that we're all in it together
That's what you said to me in all your pictures and your letters
Somehow I believe, that you have made me better
In my heart I know, you're gonna live forever

You're gone
And we all miss you
Listen to these songs
You're alive in every one
Are you smiling down?
Are you still singing?
Were you with us all along?
Do you like what we've become?

Are you smiling down?
Are you still singing?
Everyday that passes by
We celebrate your life
Can you hear us now?
But you we're singing
Every song that's in our lives
I know we'll never be apart
