Goodnight Nurse, The Massacre Begins Tonight

Tear out my insides
This plague runs my life
Her fangs were sunk deep
And now I'm riddled with disease
She spreads her virus
With every kiss
And no one's safe
No one's safe

Motives so evil
My wounds won't heal
She aims to destroy
Whatever good is left in me
Don't look in her eye
You'll be hypnotized
And mind her tongue
Cos every word's a lie

Oh no
What have I become now
It takes hold
I've got a taste for blood now
Don't fight
Run for your life

Look at what she's done to me
Look at what she's done to me

Get a stake and it through my heart now
No one's safe near me when the sun goes down
Don't fight
Run for your life
Cos the massacre begins tonight

Darkness takes a hold
My blood runeth cold
Your blood is so warm
Come join me for eternity
She'll pass on the curse
I wasn't the first
There is no way
To satisfy her thirst

Oh no
What have I become now
It takes hold
I've got a taste for blood now
Don't fight
Run for your life

Look at what she's done to me
Look at what she's done to me

Get a stake and it through my heart now
No one's safe near me when the sun goes down
Don't fight
Run for your life

Oh no
What have I become now
It takes hold
Don't fight

Run for your life

Look at what she's done to me

Get a stake and it through my heart now
No one's safe near me when the sun goes down
Don't fight
Run for your life
