

Gorerotted, Mutilated in Minutes, Severed in Seconds

The flesh attack my feet and legs
Eating the muscle through my veins
Attacking my senses -no time to think
Carving through muscle -no time to blink
Chewing, chomping my flesh away
Swimming around my moving feet,
The predators look for,
Something to eat, devoured
Attacking limbs with razor teeth
Crunching quickly,
Shredding meat, devoured

Eaten slowly, ripped apart
Losing consciousness,
Torn apart

Can't feel my tattered skin
The fish eat their way in,
Devoured
Neck fills with water
- beginning to choke
An empty shell,
I've lost all hope, devour

Severed in Seconds
