

Gospel Of The Horns, Absolute Power

We are the hatred
Lucifer's fury combined

We are the abominations
The curse of mankind
Supreme, extreme, undivine
We're here to suppress
To extinguish the lies
Brandish the steel
The pestilence through time

Activate! Dominate! Obliterate! Crush!

Some things never change
Achievement comes through absolute power

Frozen in place, in high delirium
A taste of splendid victory
Towards the shadows of the woods
Deep into the centre of the mystery
