

Gothminister, Devil

Hey Devil
What is your plan today
I didn't ask for it to be like this
Hey Devil is it never enough for you
Or won't you quit 'til I'm on my knees

You make it really hurt when everything is doomed and there's no salvation
I knew a man who lived two thousand years of your life
Meet the Devil
Living on the edge of craving pain
I didn't know it felt so good to hate you
Fear is growing stronger, bolder only halfway to the pain
When love is dead I'll come for you

Meet the devil
Meet the devil
Meet the devil

When love is dead I'll come for you

(Mumbling in background)

Hey Devil, am I the chosen one
Cause I'm craving n' I think I know the truth
Hey would you enjoy the fanatic one

You make it really hurt when everything is doomed and there's no salvation
I knew a man who lived two thousand years of your life
Meet the Devil
Living on the edge of craving pain
I didn't know it felt so good to hate you
Fear is growing stronger, bolder only halfway to the pain
When love is dead I'll come for you

Meet the devil
Meet the devil
Meet the devil

When love is dead I'll come for you
