

Gothminister, Freak

Once enchanted by gloome presence
Did that belong to a different world
All broken down by your feigned contrition Could never drown, but will become a witch that burns

Youre such a freak
So I fall apart
Youre such a freak
So I fall apart

I caught you shining on the first encounter
But now I know it was the perfect crime;
To gain a heart, and twist it into pieces
And in return, leave the words that never die;

Youre such a freak
So I fall apart
Youre such a freak
So I fall apart

Youre such a freak
You turn back the time
You stopped pretending
That the dream wasnt meant to die

It`s just a wicked world, and I aint gonna need another way to lead this life again, choose another end
Its just a blackened world, so
I dont wanna live without you by my side, in your spiritistic ways

Youre such a freak
So I fall apart
Youre such a freak
So I fall apart

In times of faith, you turned back the tide
You stopped pretending
That the dream wasnt meant to die

Freak
Freak
