

Gotthard, Fist In Your Face

You pushed it to the limit
Now you gotta choose tonight
Tarot woman,
you're all about to loose the fight

Don't need a part time wizard
Who drives me outta my mind
Cuz I'm alright
I gonna live it up tonight

Once upon a time,
Trought the world was mine alone
Had no time to realize,
It came without a warning at all

Like a fist in your face
A fist in your face

And there's a time bomb ticking
Deep inside my head
Must be a black hole attraction
A wrong step n' your dead

Don't know the words surrender
Don't know the rules of the game
I'm ready to go and I swear
You won't forget my name

Once upon a time,
Trought the world was mine alone
Had no time to realize,
It came without a warning at all

Like a fist in your face
A fist in your face
