Gotthard, Fist In Your Face

You pushed it to the limit Now you gotta choose tonight Tarot woman, you're all about to loose the fight

Don't need a part time wizard Who drives me outta my mind Cuz I'm allright I gonna live it up tonight

Once upon a time, Trought the world was mine alone Had no time to realize, It came without a warning at all

Like a fist in your face A fist in your face

And there's a time bomb ticking Deep inside my head Must be a black hole attraction A wrong step n' your dead

Don't know the words surrender Don't know the rules of the game I'm ready to go and I swear You won't forget my name

Once upon a time, Trought the world was mine alone Had no time to realize, It came without a warning at all
