Gotthard, Homerun

First base, its me livin' An empty life so wrong Heading to nowhere Drinking all night long

Then somebody told me Man, you better stop You're going down You need something to believe

On the second, I was building Castles in the air Dreamed of a kingdom I was never going to share

But it felt so empty Something should've come my way Now I know And it's clear inside of me...

Chorus:

Here I stand again I'm a gambler, I'm a man it's my homerun, my homerun to you Every life's a game And there's no one you can blame This is my homerun, my homerun to you

Third base saw me taking All her pictures from the wall When love surrendered I fell as deep as i could fall

And the fourth back to my music To free this troubled mind I found something After times of being blind

(Chorus)

I was searching, bleeding Cried some tears of pain I was yearning, screaming An' all brought me back to you...

(Chorus)
