

Gotthard, Now

There ain't a single day without you on my mind
From the very start I knew that you are no kind

And every passing day to come
I feel I'm incomplete
I need to have you closer
To give you what you need

I'd walk on broken glass to you
To find out who really want me too

Now, I'm all tied
I tremble with desire
I'm in for something real
Now, I feel strong
I know we wanted love
'til I see you come my way
And make you mine someday

There ain't a single night without you in my dreams
We must have met in a pass line, baby, to where it seems

And every time I call your name
My heart beats like a drum
It's getting louder every day
And it's only just begun

I'd walk on broken glass to you
To find out who really want me too

Now, I'm all tied
I tremble with desire
I'm in for something real
Now, I feel strong
I know we wanted love
'til I see you come my way
And make you mine someday

(solo)

I'd walk on broken glass to you
To find out who really want me too

Now, I'm all tied
I tremble with desire
I'm in for something real
Now, I feel strong
I know we wanted love
'til I see you come my way
And make you mine someday

Now...
Now...
Now...
