

Grace Jones, Fame

Fame, like to make me a name, nothing less than the best for me,
Fame, trading love for a name, ?, no one to blame but me.
You were the one who, ?, to love me,
I, ?, place,
You were the one that I needed,

Where are you?
Can't you hear me singing for you baby?
Where are you?
Come on back, I need you, won't you save me?

Fame, burning bright as a flame, but it drove you away from me,
Fame, what's the use of this game, if I can't have you back with me.
Making the big time, making the money, some how it don't seem to take the place of,
?, and I never see your face.

Where are you?
Can't you hear me singing for you baby?
Where are you?
Come on back, I need you, won't you save me?

Where are you?
Can't you hear me singing for you baby?
Where are you?
Come on back, I need you, won't you save me?

Fame, gonna drive me insane, it drove you away from me,
Fame, so alone with my name, even that don't belong to me.
Running away won't help me forget you,
I ? to find you and end this race so..
Like ? is so lonely,
? one night stands that never take your place.

Where are you?
Can't you hear me singing for you baby?
Where are you?
Come on back, I need you, won't you save me?

Fame, what's the use of this game if I can't have you back with me?
Fame, all alone with my name, even that don't belong to me.
Fame, tried to make me a name, I've got no one to blame but me.
Fame, gonna drive me insane, like it drove you away from me.
Fame, tried to make me a name, I've got no one to blame but me.
