

Grace Jones, Paper Plan

Don't need no ring, no wedding band,
We don't need no paper plan,
Just take my hand, for you're my man,
All we we need to understand,
The rules of love, are way beyond ordinary man,
We've got, marriage of the heart,
Nothing is going to keep us apart.
I know, I'll know whenever he needs me because,
I am sure that he knows that love is, love is the tie that binds,
Clear enough, so take my hand, our love is here to stay,
Love's insecure, yet we are sure, we don't need the paper play,
No book or rule should ever use emotion for a tool.
Marriage of the heart, marriage of the heart, no written page could tear us apart.
Oh I know that old rules are not the tools for a modern world,
Sign love on the line, sign love on the line.
When you found a way, love will stay from then until forever more,
Just take the hand of your man, that's all you need to understand,
The rules of love, are way beyond ordinary man.
Marriage of the heart, nothing is going to keep us apart.
I know, that I'll go wherever he needs me because,
I'm sure that he knows that love is, love is the tie binds,
I'll know, I'll go, I'm sure he needs me and that I'll go.
