

Graham Colton Band, Whatever Breaks My Heart

Whatever breaks my heart
All that you can't say
You seem to find a way
Whatever makes me cry
Everything you do
Takes a piece of me with you
Round and round
You're spinning me
Won't the sound
Just let me be
The radio is killing me
Singing all my memories
Why did we say goodbye?
Why did we say goodbye?
Whatever breaks my heart
All that you can't say
You seem to find a way
Whatever makes me cry
Everything you do
Takes a part of me with you
Round and round

You're spinning me
Kill the sound
Just let me be
The radio is killing me
Singing all my memories
Why did we say goodbye?
Why did we say goodbye?
The radio won't let me be
It's playing all our melodies
Why did we say goodbye?
Why did we say goodbye?
The radio is killing me
Singing all my memories
Why did we say goodbye?
Why did we say goodbye?
The radio won't let me be
It's playing all our melodies
Why did we say goodbye?
Why did we say goodbye?
Why did we say goodbye?
Why did we say goodbye?
