

Graham Parker, Tear Your Playhouse Down

You think youve got it all set up,
You think youve got a perfect plan
But charm any man you see,
And play with everything one that you can
But Ive got news for you baby,
I hope it dont hit you too hard
One of these days when youre at play,
Im gonna catch you off guard

Chorus

Im gonna tear your playhouse down, pretty soon
Im gonna tear your playhouse down, room by room

You think love is just fun and games, trying to be a playgirl
All you do is run around, run around, putting hearts all in a whirl
You been playing my heart to every daddy around
What you gonna say when you look up one day and see your playhouse tumblin down
