

Grand Magus, The Shadow Knows

The laugh will be the warning
He will break your mental wall
Pulverize resistance
Then sacrifice you all

His solemn promise given
To never be a slave
To stand among the fallen
And fight beyond the grave

The Shadow knows

Stare into the hearts of men

All Misery Treachery

Through Secrecy Mastery Alchemy
Perish in his fire

The weight of procreation
Will never bring him down
Survive humiliation
And laugh when time is gone

The powers of corruption
Will shiver at his gaze
The weed of crime may blossom
But will perish in his flame

The Shadow knows

Stare into the hearts of men

All misery, thievery, treachery
Perish in his fire

Through Secrecy Mastery Alchemy
Perish in his fire
