

Grave Digger, Baphomet

[1] In the dark of the night
Behind the walls
They say that we worship an idol
Behind the walls

A devil in disguise
An unholy cat
But it's a secret
We keep until we are dead

We all believe in Baphomet
We believe in what we see
Your disciples,
Belong to thee

[2] Building up our strength
Behind the walls
They accuse us of a bloody sacrilege
Behind the walls

We would never betray
The one we adore
Yours are our lives
We sacrifice it in war
