Grave Digger, Valhalla

A sultry haze hangs in the air A lightning storm cuts through the sky Thunder, the master, calling for the clouds Thunder, your master, summons you to this place

Boldly tread this fearless path Don't fear the giant's wrath

Over the mountains
The sun rises up
A castle of gold
Shines through the clouds

The gods awaken
Out of their dreams
Crossing the vally
To the rainbow bridge

Valhalla Valhalla Valhalla Valhalla

Shrouded from the pale cold night In the east you'll see its blinding light From Dusk to Dawn - in peace and serenity Follow the King and dwell with me

Boldly tread this fearless path Don't fear the giant's wrath

Over the mountains
The sun rises up
A castle of gold
Shines through the clouds

The gods awaken
Out of their dreams
Crossing the vally
To the rainbow bridge
