Great Big Sea, Stumbling In

I don't mind confiding,
That I make stupid mistakes,
Been mislead and misguided,
And I'm easily lead astray

You can dance with disaster,
Never missing a step,
Spinning faster and faster,
Long after I've already slipped,

But in the middle of it all,
You'll always break my fall,
In the middle of it all

Chorus: Over and over, again and again
You come through the door with out stumbling in,
I'm twisted and tangled and soaked to the skin,
You come through the door without stumbling in, again

Pulled in every direction,
Have a million regrets,
And your the perfect protection,
When I'm down in over my head

In the middle of it all
You always break my fall,
in the middle of it all

Chorus

And there's bones in my closet,
I've collected quite a few,
God knows what causes,
An angel to love a fool
An angel to love a fool

In the middle of it all,
You always break my fall
In the middle of it
Chorus

I'm stumbling in again,
(Again)
I'm stumbling in again,
(Again)
I'm stumbling in again,
(Again)
I'm stumbling in again,
