

Green Lizard, Breathless

I awake at break of dawn each morning
Look around look to to find her gone
Disappeared without me
A little note is all she left behind her 4 short words in 1 line
Lies in front of me, sometimes

She's alright
I can't deny
She is doing fine

All alone I stare into my mirror
No one there to to come for me
Laugh laugh away my thoughts
I'll guess I just have to try and move one Rearrange my live without the path that she knows how somehow

She's alright
I can't deny
She is doing fine
She's alright
I can't deny
She is doing fine without me
