

Green Lizard, Virgin

it's been burnin' in your mind wondering if it is right that it keeps you all alone at night so you start lookin' for the one the one whom just might become the one with whom you would feel right you ask me if I'd like to go to a place only you know or have never shown to me before if only you could read my mind then you'd certainly find out that I'm lookin' for a score

sit alone and wonder why why it is only you'll have to die but you won't die
you won't

it's ok
it's all right
