

Greenwheel, Shelter

consumed by this greedy disposition i give no thanks for all that's been given to me see i'm so concerned with selfish ambition i see what i want and look past what i need

it's time to forget myself

tell me where to find shelter somewhere here
tell me where to find shelter

impatience takes it's toll it's such a hefty fare for me to pay indifference takes control i guess i'll keep that outside at bay i don't care if i'll ever change no i don't care if i'll ever change

somewhere here, somewhere here...

somewhere here (x2)

i don't care if i ever change no i dont care if i ever change
