

Greg Laswell, Sing, Theresa Says

Go to sleep while I gather all my things and I will Call you in a couple of days I can hear the june bugs approaching A god damn army of them in my brain

"Sing" , theresa says. "sing happy things"
"Sing" , theresa says if I do everything
One day a man will spring worth loving all of my friends fall from the sky now Many more than I ever thought I had Everyone is sharpening up their angles When all I really want is...

"Sing" , theresa says. "sing happy things"
"Sing" , theresa says if I do everything
One day a man will spring worth loving

ba da dum da dum da dum dum
ba da dum da dum da dum dum
ba da dum da dum da dum dum
ba da dum da dum da dum dum

"Sing" , theresa says. "sing happy things"
"Sing" , theresa says if I do everything
One day a man will spring worth loving
