

Greg Trooper, Dream Away The Blues

You see me moping around
And say I've got it easy
If this is easy
I'll take a bite out of my shoes
One glass of wine
And I'm feeling pretty weary

But I'll be just fine
Once I dream away these blues

I got nothing to say
And I'm looking like a scarecrow
You say I'm wasting away
And you don't care if I do
I'm just a bit tired
And lack a little motivation

But I'll be just fine
Once I dream away these blues

I'll be a dancing child
I'll be the hallelujah chorus
Turn the TV on
I'll be the breaking news
I just need some time
To shake off half a century
Back in the world I'll climb
Once I dream away these blues

So come on babe
Don't look so disheartened
Unlike before
These dreams will come true
So fill my glass
The wine will help me get started
I'll be coming back fast
Once I dream away these blues

I'll be a dancing child
I'll be the hallelujah chorus
Turn the TV on
I'll be the breaking news
I just need some time
To shake off half a century
Back in the world I'll climb
Once I dream away these blues
