Gregorian, Brothers In Arms

verse one: These mist covered mountains Are a home now for me But my home is the lowlands And always will be. Some day you'll return to Your valleys and your farms And you'll no longer burn To be brothers in arms. verse two: Through these fields of destruction Baptism of fire I've witnessed your suffering As the battle raged higher. And though they did hurt me so bad In my fear and alarm You did not desert me My brothers in arms. verse three: There's so many different worlds So many different suns And we have just one world But we live in different ones. verse four: Now the sun's gone to hell And the moon's riding high Let me bid you farewell Every man has to die. But it's written in the starlight And every line in your palm We're fools to make war On our brothers in arms...
