

Grendel, Social Distortion

Social distortion, a result of reality
Mental abortion, no holding on to what you see
All love is empty, just got to hold it in your hands
Perverted actions, just living up to my demands

Don't walk away
I need you here, for ever more
Don't walk away
I'll keep you here, yeah that's for sure
Don't walk away
You were asleep, your head collapsed
Don't walk away
Oh what a scene, what a romance

Lured and drugged, but you can't remember
From June came forth this legacy
Soon to end in a cold November
The trophies call in my insanity

Constrict your limbs - your bleeding skin - my thrill comes on Deface your dry bones - I wear your face - For my love is strong
Forever binding - We are as one - We are condemned
In this affection - There's only pain - There is no end

Don't walk away
I need you here, for ever more
Don't walk away
I'll keep you here, yeah that's for sure
Don't walk away
You were asleep, your head collapsed
Don't walk away
Oh what a scene, what a romance

Lured and drugged, but you can't remember
From June came forth this legacy
Soon to end in a cold November
The trophies call in my insanity

Don't say I'm falling - You wouldn't know what all this means
Don't say I'm stalling - No, no one knows and no one will
We are prepared to take the step that meets all needs
Your eyes stare blindly, just waiting for the final kill

Don't walk away
I need you here, for ever more
Don't walk away
I'll keep you here, yeah that's for sure
Don't walk away
You were asleep, your head collapsed
Don't walk away
Oh what a scene, what a romance

Lured and drugged, but you can't remember
From June came forth this legacy
Soon to end in a cold November
