

Greta Van Fleet, When The Curtain Falls well you're so great and I love you so you know I'm your biggest fan I saw your picture and it's the best the finest in the land camera lights and action and words you know so well you're in and out of fashion in Hollywood of hell

when the curtain falls
walk the hollow halls babe
once a valley doll
no you're not at all, no!

well I love you in that movie show can I have your autograph it's so funny you such charm and whole thing made me laugh obetrals and cocktails you're cunting all your rings they all said they loved you well they've taken all your things

well listen darling
it's been real swell what can I say you've one woman show but I'm not gonna lie you could use a little work well at your age

what've you got baby

no you're not at all

goodbye, baby
goodbye
