

Gretchen, Standing At The Door

(verse 1)

Cover Me, Let me touch your face
Run my hands, over every trace
I want to know, who you really are and why you've come this far

(chorus)

Cause you're standing at the door of every heart
Every ordinary
Standing at the door of every heart
Every ordinary man
OH, OH Ordinary man

(verse 2)

Take my hand, lead me to your place
Lay me down, on the bed you've made
I want to feel, your arms surrounding me as I fall to my knees

(chorus)

(solo)

(bridge)

I don't wanna wait, I just wanna taste
The manna melting on my tongue
Feel the water flow, from the fountain
Carrying the work that you've begun, that you've begun,
The work that you've begun, OH, OH

(chorus)(chorus)
