

GrimSkunk, Victim Of Maturity

When I think about younger days
Long before I was played out
Smoke'n in the park getting high that was the way out
Dodge 5-0 they me you punks better get out
My aunty say you better get home
So I'm gone break out

Cause being a man it ain't easy
I want to stay up
I be a victim of maturity
I try to stay up

At one time my thoughts weren't twisted
Life was easy hanging out all night
Being innocent how I miss it
Smoking billy in the summertime

And now I reminisce and lord knows I miss it
The time of delinquency trouble and mischief
When my mind was so sweet and innocent
And now I wish I could just go back and live it

Some things are better left unsaid, bigger than words
I feel it
Some things are felt and not heard
Some things are better left unsaid
