

Grizzly Bear, On A Neck, On A Spit

My messenger in disguise
makes up for such short goodbyes.
You can't come home again.
Each time it's different.
And the yards around your feet fall away while you're asleep.

Each day, spend it with me now.
Each day, spend it with me now.
Each day, spend it with me now.
All my time, spend it with me,

But each day spend it with you now.
Each day spend it with you now.
All my time, spend it with you now.
All my time, spend it with you,

But each day spend it with you now.
Each day spend it with you now.
All my time, spend it with you now.
All my time, spend it with you,
But out here, no one can hear me,
Out here no one can hear me,
Out here no one can hear me

Each day spend it with you now.
Each day spend it with you now.
All my time, spend it with you now.
All my time, spend it with you
But out here, no one can hear me,
Out here no one can hear me,
Out here no one can hear me
